In time, PAOC will also review negative International Education Mark (IEM) decisions referred to it by the Approvals and Review Committee (ARC).

4.2 Boundaries to the Role of PAOC

11. ANY OTHER BUSINESS

It was agreed that incorporeal meetings would be required after PAEC meetings to consider programme validation refusals, at least until the committee members feel their process is sufficiently mature to carry out the work individually with consensus being achieved by email correspondence.

It was requested that members receive the meeting papers no less than a week in advance of the meeting to allow sufficient time for preparation

It was also requested that, where possible, the Committee should not meet in December due to high work demands at that time of year.

12. NEXT MEETING DATE
The next meeting of the PAEC will be held on 18 February 2015. The executive will poll PAOC Committee members in the New Year to provisionally book a date and time for an incorporeal meeting after the PAEC meeting to review any validation refusal decisions made.
