

Next Steps for Teaching & Learning: Moving Forward Together

10 December 2021

Rialtas na hÉireann
Government of Ireland

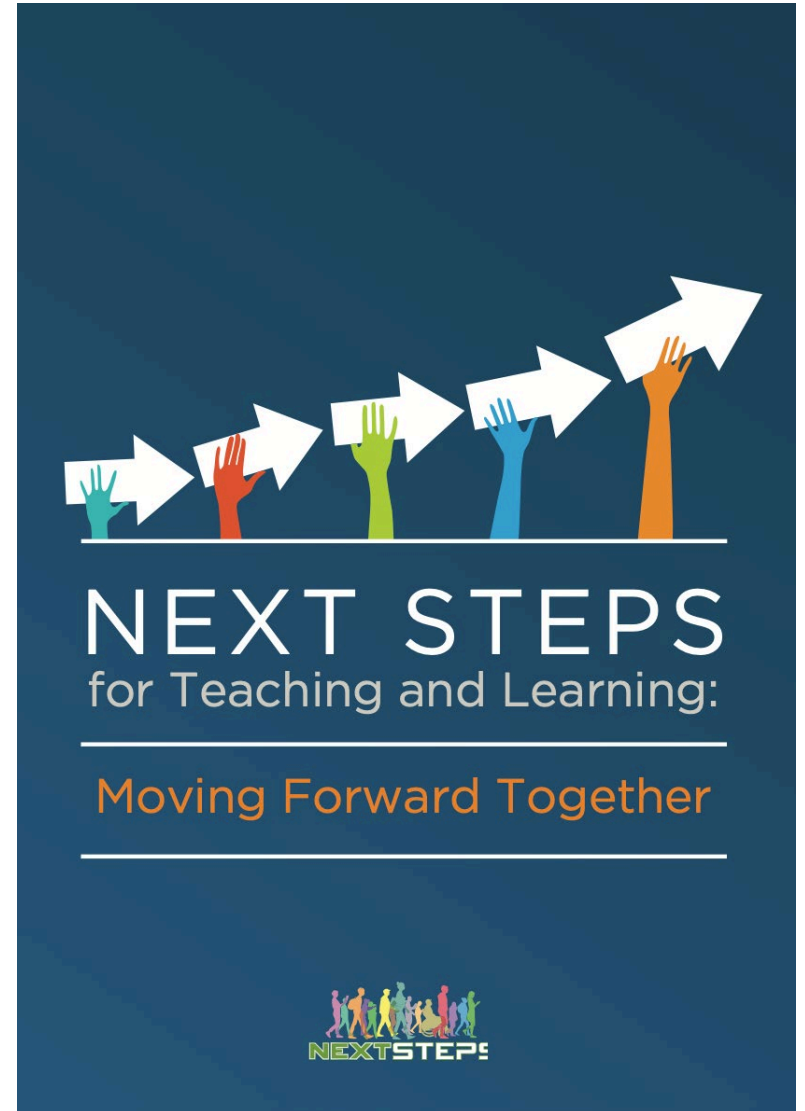

HEA | HIGHER EDUCATION AUTHORITY
AN tÚDARÁS um ARD-OIDEACHAS

NATIONAL FORUM
FOR THE ENHANCEMENT OF TEACHING
AND LEARNING IN HIGHER EDUCATION

Next Steps – overview

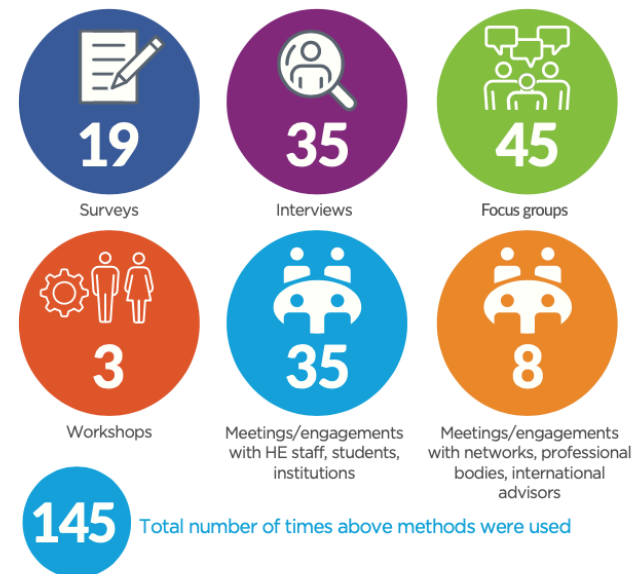

- ‘In the context of Covid-19, what have we learnt and what does it mean for the future of teaching and learning in Irish higher education?’
- March – November 2021
- Fifteen partners
- Outputs
 - Next Steps partner report
 - Next Step collection of Insights (20)
 - Next Steps documentary

Partners and evidence

Primary research methods (used by Next Steps partners)

Research participants

Figure 3. Primary research methods used and participants engaged by Next Steps partners

Some key messages and recommendations

Enabling Culture

Equity/Equality, Diversity and Inclusion

Community and well-being

Collaboration and partnership

Decision-making and leadership

The world of work, for staff and students, is digitally infused and requires a commitment to lifelong learning.

Experiences and environment are changing.

Both of these impact on pedagogy, work-integrated learning, digital and open practice and policy, curricular innovation, assessment, flexible pathways ...

Need to continue to investigate this space together.

Links

Next Steps Report

Collection of Insights

Next Steps Documentary as part of the launch

www.teachingandlearning.ie

