

Technological University of the Shannon:
Midlands Midwest

Ollscoil Teicneolaíochta na Sionainne:
Lár Tíre Iarthar Láir

Building a Culture of Academic Integrity: student partnership, collaboration and skills development.

Catherine O'Donoghue, Lecturer, TUS

Frances O'Connell, VP Student Experience and Education, TUS

Johanna Archbold, Head Librarian, TUS Library: Midlands

Embedding a culture of academic integrity

Core Values in TUS

Excellence & quality	Professionalism	Innovation
Partnership	Transparency & integrity	Supportiveness
Equity & inclusiveness	Accessibility	Agility

In TUS, the culture of academic integrity belongs to everyone.

Key drivers for TUS approach:

- Co-owned with all our students;
- Provide skills in academic integrity that will protect the integrity of the qualifications earned by students;
- Protect the reputation of the university;
- Reflect the key work of NAIN.

Awareness building

Build strong partnerships & collaboration between students, academic staff & professional staff;

Ensure access for students to bespoke resources to avoid academic misconduct;

Work towards a shared understanding of local policies of academic integrity;

Heighten awareness of risks and consequences of academic misconduct to both learners and the wider community.

Proactive measures

Collaboration
Collaborative programme for National Academic Integrity week
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Staff & Student planning team<ul style="list-style-type: none">○ Awareness building workshops and activities.

Skill building

Recognising and responding to student and staff needs to support a lived culture of integrity.

Build awareness of available assistance to work with integrity across TUS:

Library and AWC,
Induction activities,
Classroom based learning.

Develop classroom based resources for staff.

Ongoing development of bespoke student resources in academic integrity.

Skill building measures

Student supports

- Library workshops, online resources, individual support;
- Academic writing centre support – individual, small group, class group.

Our learning so far...

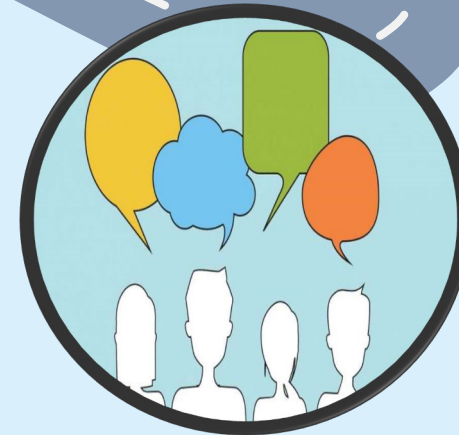

Technological University of the Shannon:
Midlands Midwest

Ollscoil Teicneolaíochta na Sionainne:
Lár Tíre Iarthar Láir

Open and honest conversations are immensely valuable.

Academic integrity
cannot be ignored.

Student voice is vital.

We are still learning.