the information for the report. The Key Executive gave an overview of the survey process and confirmed that the report will be published.

7. Observations of the Committee

7.1 Members presenting validation refusal cases - discussion

As agreed at the PAOC meeting of the 03 May 2019, validation refusal items on the PAOC agenda were assigned to two PAOC members, who reviewed and lead the discussion on these items at the meeting. The Committee found that, in general, this was a beneficial method of presenting the validation cases that provided in-depth analysis of the application. It was agreed to continue with this method of presenting for the next PAOC meeting.

The Committee noted that guidelines regarding how best to consider and evaluate validation refusals would be helpful.

Draft guidelines will be provided to the PAOC in advance of its next meeting.

8. Any Other Business

8.1 Qualifications and Quality Assurance (Education and Training) Amendment Act 2019 (for noting) (PAOC/A1-2019/8.1)

This paper was for noting and was briefly discussed. The Committee discussed some of the key changes to QQI functions which will come about as a result of the amended legislation.

As there was no other business, the meeting ended.
